

Living Word Uganda 2014
Rules and Guidelines for participants of the Living word Conference.

Introduction:

The African Bible University is a Christian Institution and upholds the highest expected moral standards of the Christian faith. Because of this therefore the University sets rules and guidelines for those who are resident at the University. The guidelines also serve to help the university provide good service to all the residents of the university. All participants at the Living Word Conference are therefore expected to observe the following rules and guidelines while at the conference.

1. All meals shall be served at the Dining hall at the designated times, any person who will not have come to dining hall at the designated time will forfeit his/her meal.
2. All residents shall be allocated a room and bed to reside, participants will therefore strictly be expected to reside in the rooms allocated to them.
3. There are separate residences for Male and Female residents. The female residence area is out of bounds for male students and similarly the male residence area is out of bounds of for female residents.
4. All participants shall be required to attend the designated programs/ activities as outlined in the conference program. If for some reason a participant is unable to attend or join in any of the designated activities/programs, such a person should seek for permission from the relevant authorities.
5. No participant shall leave the university area without permission from the leadership of the conference.
6. Participants shall clean up their rooms each morning before departure for any designated activities.
7. Consumption of Alcohol or cigarettes is forbidden.
8. All participants shall provide theirsown bed sheets, towels and other toiletries.
9. Lights out will at 11:00pm
10. Internet use is only for facilitators
11. Gates will be closed at 11:00pm

Thank you.